Please call the friary when a friend, neighbor, or loved one is in need of visitation or the sacraments of Eucharist, Reconciliation, or Anointing of the Sick.

BULLETIN DEADLINE
Monday at 9:00am
Who is God for you? Do you see God as the Father-or the Son?-or as the Holy Spirit? Today of all days, the feast of the Pentecost, it is easy to imagine the Holy Spirit. Our reading from the Acts of the Apostles helps us imagine this very public occasion. The disciples might have been all together in one place, but if they had planned on a quiet time together, the Spirit changed that by coming with noise and fire. It was anything but private—and anything but silent. Even more, the Spirit changed things by empowering the disciples to speak in different tongues as they proclaimed the mighty acts of God. Everyone, including all the devout persons from every nation under heaven who were staying in Jerusalem, could understand in their own native languages.

Did you notice that as amazing as this is we don’t hear anything like “Wow! Listen to us! Aren’t we amazing? Aren’t we blowing everyone’s mind?” It would be odd if the disciples weren’t amazed. What was important to them, however, was that they were able to tell about those mighty deeds of God to everyone because of the Spirit who empowered them. Paul explains this in his First Letter to the Corinthians.

He says, quite simply, that it is the Holy Spirit who empowers. Just as the Holy Spirit empowered the disciples, so does the Holy Spirit empower each of us and with different gifts. Even more, Paul says that to each of us the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit.
